

A claim form for backdated Housing and Council Tax Benefit

Use this form if your claim for Housing or Council Tax Benefit does not start as early as you think it should.

What is backdated Housing or Council Tax Benefit?

We will normally pay your benefit from the Monday after the day that we get your claim. If you think you should be paid benefit earlier than this, but did not claim in time, you must ask us to backdate your claim. If we agree to backdate your claim we will pay you from an earlier date.

When will we backdate claims for Housing or Council Tax Benefit?

We must backdate your claim if you ask us to and you have a good reason for not claiming earlier. Not knowing the rules about claiming benefit is not normally considered a good reason for not claiming earlier.

You will need to give us evidence of the reasons you did not claim earlier. There is more advice on what evidence we may need at the end of this form.

We cannot backdate your claim if:

- you did not have a good reason for claiming late
- or
- you had a good reason at the start of the time you wished to claim but this did not last until the date you made your claim. For example, if you were in hospital and you could not claim, we would not normally backdate your claim if you had delayed claiming once you were discharged.

If you want to ask us to backdate your claim, please complete the rest of this form.

If you would like this form in a different format or in a different language (for example, in Braille, on audio tape, in large print or on computer disk) please contact us on 01865 252849 or at the address overleaf.

Please hand in this form at one of our local offices, or post it to: Oxford City Council Benefits Service, P.O. Box 10, St Aldate's Chambers, St Aldate's, Oxford OX1 1BR.

What evidence should I provide with this form?

If you were ill during the period that you are requesting backdated benefit you must provide a letter from your GP. It must confirm the dates you were ill and confirmation that the illness may have contributed to you making a late application.

If you were in hospital please provide written confirmation from either the hospital or your doctor confirming the dates that you were hospitalised.

If you recently applied for Jobseeker's Allowance or Income Support, did you complete the Housing and Council Tax Benefit form in the start up pack you were given? The form is called a HCTB1 and is for both Housing and Council Tax Benefit. If you completed this form and returned it then please provide evidence from Jobcentre Plus of the date they received this form.

If you believe you were wrongly advised by any voluntary agency, Jobcentre Plus, Social Services, the Pension Service, the council or any other organisation please provide details. If you have any supporting documentation or can obtain written details from the organisation please send it along with this form.
